Graham is National Head of Savills' Industrial/Logistics Agency department and with over 20 years' experience, co-ordinates opportunities and clients on a national basis in conjunction with the Savills regional office network. His experience spans the UK, operating strategically from London, dealing with all aspects of industrial and distribution land and buildings for a range of occupier, developer and investor clients.

Graham has provided consultancy on existing built properties from textile mills, chemical works, power plants and airports, through to modern institutional, manufacturing and distribution buildings. He also has extensive experience in the advice, planning, development and disposal/acquisition of major strategic sites.

He has acted as Strategic Project Advisor for a range of national and international organisations including Ford Motor Company, Rieter Automotive, ITV Plc, Henkel and Independent Papers. Graham has also represented institutional funds and national property developers in the acquisition, development, marketing and disposal of strategic landholdings and business parks.

These include:

- Ravensbank Business Park, Redditch - 100 acres
- Kingsbury Link, Tamworth - 65 acres
- G Park, Sittingbourne - 75 acres
- Magna Park, Milton Keynes - 200 acres

Graham formed Brown Harknett International Limited, an entirely specialist industrial property consultancy, in 1996. Savills acquired Brown Harknett in 2005. Previously, he was Managing Director of Oliver Liggins Business Space Limited and was also National Main
