Away for a long time?
Who is looking after your interests?

Rights of way.
Is your land as private as you think?

Heating costs are hotting up. How can you cool them down?

Staff issues.
Where do I begin?

At Country House Consultancy, we know that running a country home can be complicated: asset value, running costs, staff issues, rights of way, planning: a plethora of potential issues. We're set up to take all the stress away from you. We'll advise you on the best people, ways to make efficiencies, and most important of all, how to maximise the value in your home. Usually, we find we can save you more than we'll ever cost you.
Live in a more efficient manor.
